ADDRESS (Street, City, State, ZIP Code):

The U.S. Department of Agriculture has evidence that on or about August 7, 2013, you or your organization committed violations of the following sections of the Code of Federal Regulations, Title 9:

2.40(a)(2) Attending Veterinarian and Adequate Veterinary Care... failure to assure that the attending veterinarian has appropriate authority to ensure the provision of adequate veterinary care and to oversee the adequacy of other aspects of animal care and use

2.75(b)(1) Records: Dealers and Exhibitors.... failure to make, keep and maintain accurate records of animal disposition

3.125(c) Facilities, General.... failure to store feed and bedding in facilities which adequately protect supplies against deterioration, molding or contamination by vermin

3.126(b) Facilities, Indoor.... failure to provide adequate ventilation by natural or mechanical means to provide for the health and to prevent discomfort of the animals

3.131(c) Sanitation.... failure to keep premises clean and in good repair in order to protect the animals from injury and to facilitate prescribed husbandry practices.

The Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service (APHIS) created federal regulations to ensure the welfare of animals and help prevent the spread of animal and plant pests and diseases. Since violations of the regulations can have serious and costly impacts that are detrimental to the public interest, APHIS is providing you with an Official Warning for the violation(s) described above. Any further violation of these federal regulations may result in the assessment of a civil penalty, criminal prosecution, or other sanctions. If you have any questions concerning this Official Warning or violation(s), please contact the APHIS official listed in this notice.
